St. Luke's Episcopal church had a Christmas tree and program Thursday evening.

The festival of the Birth of Christ was celebrated here in the Catholic church on Christmas day in a fitting manner. Three masses were celebrated by Rev. Father Galligan, pastor of St. Mary's church, at 6, 8 and 10, and at the two early masses large numbers of the parishioners received communion, and especially at the 8 o'clock mass, which was celebrated for the members of the A. O. H., and some seventy members of this Catholic order attended in a body. The 10 o'clock mass was a high mass, and the music was furnished by the choir under the direction of Miss Malone. After the last mass, benediction of the most blessed sacrament was given. The music at the 8 o'clock mass was furnished by the St. Mary's school choir. The sermons delivered by Park City's dear pastor were highly instructive and were taken from the day's gospel. The altars were prettily decorated with all sorts of cut flowers, potted plants and smilax. The flowers used were donations from the women of the parish, Knights of Columbus and several out-of-town ladies and gentlemen. The weather was ideal and record breaking crowds were found at the various masses.
